COST ESTIMATE

H.R. 1085

An act to revise, codify, and enact without substantive change certain general and permanent laws related to patriotic and national observances, ceremonies, and organizations, as Title 36, United States Code, “Patriotic and National Observances, Ceremonies, and Organizations”

As reported by the Senate Committee on the Judiciary on July 16, 1998

H.R. 1085 would codify, into Title 36 of the United States Code, existing laws related to patriotic and national observances, ceremonies, and organizations, and would refine awkward language and eliminate obsolete statutes. CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 1085 would result in no cost to the federal government. Because H.R. 1085 would not affect direct spending or receipts, pay-as-you-go procedures would not apply. The legislation contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would have no impact on the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.
